THE SHOW

"OMIT NOTHING, WATSON"

It's 1906 - the Golden Age of Magic. The Masked Magician, bestrides London's world of Magic like a colossus, UNTIL..one night, in mid-performance, the Magician vanishes. Dead? Kidnapped? In hiding?

After a month Scotland Yard is completely baffled (obviously) and call in Sherlock Holmes to help solve the mystery of the Masqued Magician's disappearance. Holmes (with an excitable Watson in tow) plunges into the secret world of Edwardian Magic only to find that the Masked Magician's identity is Magic's best kept secret.

As they meet, and question, the Magician's peers (seeing a lot of Magic), the mystery of his identity and fate deepens. As they unravel clue after clue, Holmes comes to share Watson's wonder and discovers that it can sit alongside his logical outlook.

When Holmes finally uncovers the startling and surprising secrets of the Masked Magician he, Watson and the audience have to decide....

"It's quite exciting," Holmes.

UNDERGROUND

CREATIVE TEAM

"Delightful to see." World Magic Review

JOHN NICHOLSON (DIRECTOR)

Olivier award nominated writer and director

"John Nicholson directs an evening of comedy gold." Reviews Hub

"Nicholson's slick direction facilitates a flawless comedic exhibition. By far, the best new comedy I have seen this year." Broadway World

"A mix of the ridiculous and the sublime." Evening Standard

FI RUSSELL (DESIGNER)

Over 10 years' experience, having designed more than 100 shows.

"Fi Russell's superbly simple but versatile set" British Theatre Guide

"Fi Russell's design is particularly impressive." The Stage

"The staging, a clever multi-tasking design, makes good use of the Plymouth Atheneum space, taking us from launderette to palace in the blink of an eye." Reviews Hu=b

A Holmes & Watson Magic Show

An entirely new Sherlock Holmes story.

The play is set in 1906, as electricity and new transportation systems (the Underground) are revolutionising daily life, and the population are in thrall to superstar Music Hall Magicians and celebrity Spiritualists.

The play opens in the Persian Hall in Picadilly where the Masked Magician is performing his nightly show. It's the talk of London. Mid-show, he vanishes, magically, totally and, seemingly, forever.

Has he been kidnapped? Is he in hiding? Has he been murdered? Who, actually, is behind the Mask?

Meanwhile In Baker Street...

After a month Scotland Yard have hit a dead end and call in the world's greatest detective. Criss-crossing London, travelling by the exciting new Bakerloo line, Holmes (with Watson in tow) investigates the crime scene. Holmes becomes convinced that only a Magician could have carried out this extraordinary crime.

They split up to track down the Masked Magician's associates, rivals and 'friends'. In the process they visit four performing magicians - seeing their acts, checking their alibis and weighing their evidence.

Can the great detective, and his faithful companion, Dr Watson, unravel the mystery surrounding the Masked Magician's disappearance, before it's too late!?

Packed with Mystery, Magic and Mirth...

Performed and devised by two of Britain's most respected stage magicians, the show combines everything you would expect from a Sherlock Holmes mystery.

It is created for a Family Audience (aged 7+) and promises:

- Beautiful Edwardian sets and costumes
- A real mystery with multiple suspects
- A huge array of magic including escapology, mentalism, and cardistry
- Audience are involved in solving the mystery
- Beyond entertainment, the show aims to deepen the audience's understanding of Edwardian history and society.
